

CHRISTMAS GALA – THE BIGGEST FLORISTIC EVENT IN POLAND

November 4th, 2018

Slaskie Centrum Florystyczne Rekpol, Turza Slaska, Poland

Great Masters of Floristry:

ALEX CHOI

who lives and works in South Korea is the current holder of the title Fleurop/Interflora World Champion. Alex is a highly talented and charming designer who is also a keen competitor, teacher and demonstrator. He is part of the florist team who have their school in Seoul where he inspires young florists with his story. A former school teacher, he started his floral career with indoor gardening. From this he developed into floristry and could regularly be seen at the most prestigious competitions in the Far East. He has been a florist for over 20 years now.

NATALIA ZHIZHKO

is a multi-award winning florist, teacher and demonstrator and is the CEO and Creative Director of Tridvornova art-bureau. Although Natalia is based in Russia she was born and brought up in Estonia and now works all over the world teaching and demonstrating. She loves to travel and it is through her travels that she finds inspiration for much of her work.

TOMASZ MAX KUCZYŃSKI

Is a sparkling young florist from Poland who loves to compete! As a boy he decided that flowers would be the major part of his private and professional life and he completed his first course when he was just 16! Ever since he has been seriously involved with floristry. He has taken part in many competitions and organised many exhibitions. Tomasz gives lots of courses and demonstrations all over the world which, he says, "Gives me a lot of pleasure and satisfaction". His company, the Florysty Agency, deals with weddings and corporate contracts.